

4 March 1985

MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director, Office of Current Production and Analytic Support
Directorate of Intelligence

FROM: Harry E. Fitzwater
Deputy Director for Administration

SUBJECT: CIA Computer Study Panel

1. Your participation in the CIA Computer Study Panel was a very important part of the Panel's efforts. I hope you found it an interesting and worthwhile endeavor.

2. The Panel's findings and recommendations should have continuing benefit to the Agency for many years to come. I appreciate your attendance at Danny's briefing of Mr. Taylor and Mr. McMahon, and I particularly want to thank you for your contribution as a member of the Panel.

Harry E. Fitzwater

STAT

Central Intelligence Agency

Washington, D. C. 20505

5 March 1985

[Redacted]
Chief Scientist

National Security Agency
Fort George G. Meade, MD 20755

Dear [Redacted]

Your participation in the CIA Computer Study Panel was a very important part of the Panel's efforts. I hope you found it an interesting and worthwhile endeavor.

The Panel's findings and recommendations should have continuing benefit to the Agency for many years to come. I appreciate your attendance at Danny's briefing of [Redacted] and Mr. McMahon, and I particularly want to thank you for your contribution as a member of the Panel.

Sincerely,

[Redacted]
Harry E. Fitzwater
Deputy Director
for Administration

STAT

STAT

STAT

STAT

Central Intelligence Agency

Washington, D.C. 20505

5 March 1985

Dr. Willis Ware
Rand Corporation
1700 Main Street
Santa Monica, CA 90406

Dear Willis:

Your participation in the CIA Computer Study Panel was a very important part of the Panel's efforts. I hope you found it an interesting and worthwhile endeavor.

The Panel's findings and recommendations should have continuing benefit to the Agency for many years to come. I particularly want to thank you for your contribution as a member of the Panel.

Sincerely,

Harry E. Fitzwater
Deputy Director
for Administration

STAT

Central Intelligence Agency

Washington, D. C. 20505

5 March 1985

Mr. Frederic G. Withington, Vice President
Arthur D. Little, Inc.
17 Acorn Park
Cambridge, MA 02140

Dear Ted:

Your participation in the CIA Computer Study Panel was a very important part of the Panel's efforts. I hope you found it an interesting and worthwhile endeavor.

The Panel's findings and recommendations should have continuing benefit to the Agency for many years to come. I appreciate your attendance at Danny's briefing of [redacted] and Mr. McMahon, and I particularly want to thank you for your contribution as a member of the Panel.

Sincerely,

[redacted]

Harry E. Fitzwater
Deputy Director
for Administration

STAT

STAT

Central Intelligence Agency

Washington, D. C. 20505

5 March 1985

Mr. James Croke, Vice President,
Mitre Corporation
P. O. Box 208
Bedford, MA 01730

Dear Jim:

Your participation in the CIA Computer Study Panel was a very important part of the Panel's efforts. I hope you found it an interesting and worthwhile endeavor.

The Panel's findings and recommendations should have continuing benefit to the Agency for many years to come. I particularly want to thank you for your contribution as a member of the Panel.

Sincerely,

Harry E. Fitzwater
Deputy Director
for Administration

STAT

Central Intelligence Agency

Washington, D. C. 20505

5 March 1985

Mr. James H. Burrows, Director
Institute for Computer Sciences and Technology
National Bureau of Standards
Gaithersburg, MD 20899

Dear Jim:

Your participation in the CIA Computer Study Panel was a very important part of the Panel's efforts. I hope you found it an interesting and worthwhile endeavor.

The Panel's findings and recommendations should have continuing benefit to the Agency for many years to come. I appreciate your attendance at Danny's briefing of [ ] and Mr. McMahon, and I particularly want to thank you for your contribution as a member of the Panel.

Sincerely,

Harry E. Fitzwater
Deputy Director
for Administration

STAT

STAT

Central Intelligence Agency

Washington, D. C. 20505

5 March 1985

Mr. C. Danny May

Dear Danny,

Your leadership of the CIA Computer Study Panel was the key element in the success of the Panel. I hope you found it an interesting and worthwhile endeavor.

Your Panel's findings and recommendations should have continuing benefit to the Agency for many years to come. As you saw, your briefing to [redacted] and Mr. McMahon was well received. I want to thank you for a job well done.

Sincerely,

Harry E. Fitzwater
Deputy Director
for Administration

STAT

STAT

STAT